

Steps competition

In order to make participants move over six month time students were to count the steps made every day. At the beginning they were to download a step counter application and every week there was a check point how many steps every student made. After every 6 weeks there was a winner appointed and awarded with a basket of fresh fruit and healthy nuts. Students were competing eagerly.

